

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CATARACT
AND REFRACTIVE SURGERY

The following resolution has been adopted by the American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery (ASCRS):

The American Society of Cataract and Refractive Surgery extends its congratulations to the National Eye Institute on the occasion of its 40th anniversary. Representing over 10,000 ophthalmologists worldwide, ASCRS and its physician membership recognize the important role that NEI plays in advancing vision research, and is proud to lend its support to the 2010-2020 Decade of Vision.
